

national award and diploma photography and digital imaging

our alumni: some of our past students success

David Weston: Bungalow Industries

David graduated from the National Diploma Photography course in 2005. He has since established 'Bungalow Industries' with Scott Mycock, providing broad ranging design and marketing services:

- crafting brands
- building online businesses,
- books design,
- designing brochures & marketing materials,
- and photography

<http://www.bungalowindustries.com/index.html>

Zoë Barker

Zoë graduated from the ND Photography course in 2005.

Her final major project was a photographic documentation of the house that her recently deceased grandfather had left behind. After the course, Zoë continued to develop this work which was shown as her first solo exhibition at the Thelma Hulbert Gallery, Honiton, Devon in March 2009. The work is now on display in the Geffrye Museum, London

